

WHITE
MONTE CARLO

BY ROBERT
B.
GRIFFIN

Whenever you go chasing rabbit holes, you end up tripping over your own feet.

I think my little brother learned this the hard way.

Are you sure that's all you remember, son?

Nothing else?
Is there anyone that would want to hurt you? Did they take anything from you?

Yeah, all I remember is getting attacked, and a white Monte Carlo driving away

Officer, my brother has been through a lot today. He needs rest. We have your card.

You Gotta Chill

Something has been off for a while, but now this happens!

I get that you got jumped. But you
gotta tell the police what happened.

I'm tellin YOU, like I told him.
That's all I remember.
Drop it.

I know there is more to this, I just need him to tell me.

Okay, I'll head out.
Do you at least need
me to feed your cat?

If he doesn't want to tell me...

Yeah man.
You know where the key is...

I'll have to find out the truth for myself

The truth always finds a way to show itself.

The pieces to this puzzle are all here

I just need to know where to look...

Hey kitty.

Maybe, I don't need to keep followin this rabbit hole.

I just need to make a phone call.

If it isn't The Ghost Who Walks in the flesh

Aw, come on old man. You know I am no longer in that life.

I'm looking for Firecracker, he around?

I know, but it has been so long since you've stopped by.

I've been here waiting on YOU!

If anybody knows what happened, it's Firecracker

Yeah, and there are a lot of Monte Carlo in the city

You heard about what happened to J.

Well, what about this?

Oh boy, I gotta make a call.

To who?

To Missy, or Miss Fortune She'll have your answers.

Firecracker didn't say you'd be this cute.

Missy, I assume?

I am...

I hear you had some questions for me? Well...

Firecracker said she'd meet me here. But it has been hours and she's a no-show Or so I thought...

I do. Do you know my little brother, Jacob?

Maybe, this is not the best place to answer that question. Why don't you come and take a ride with me.

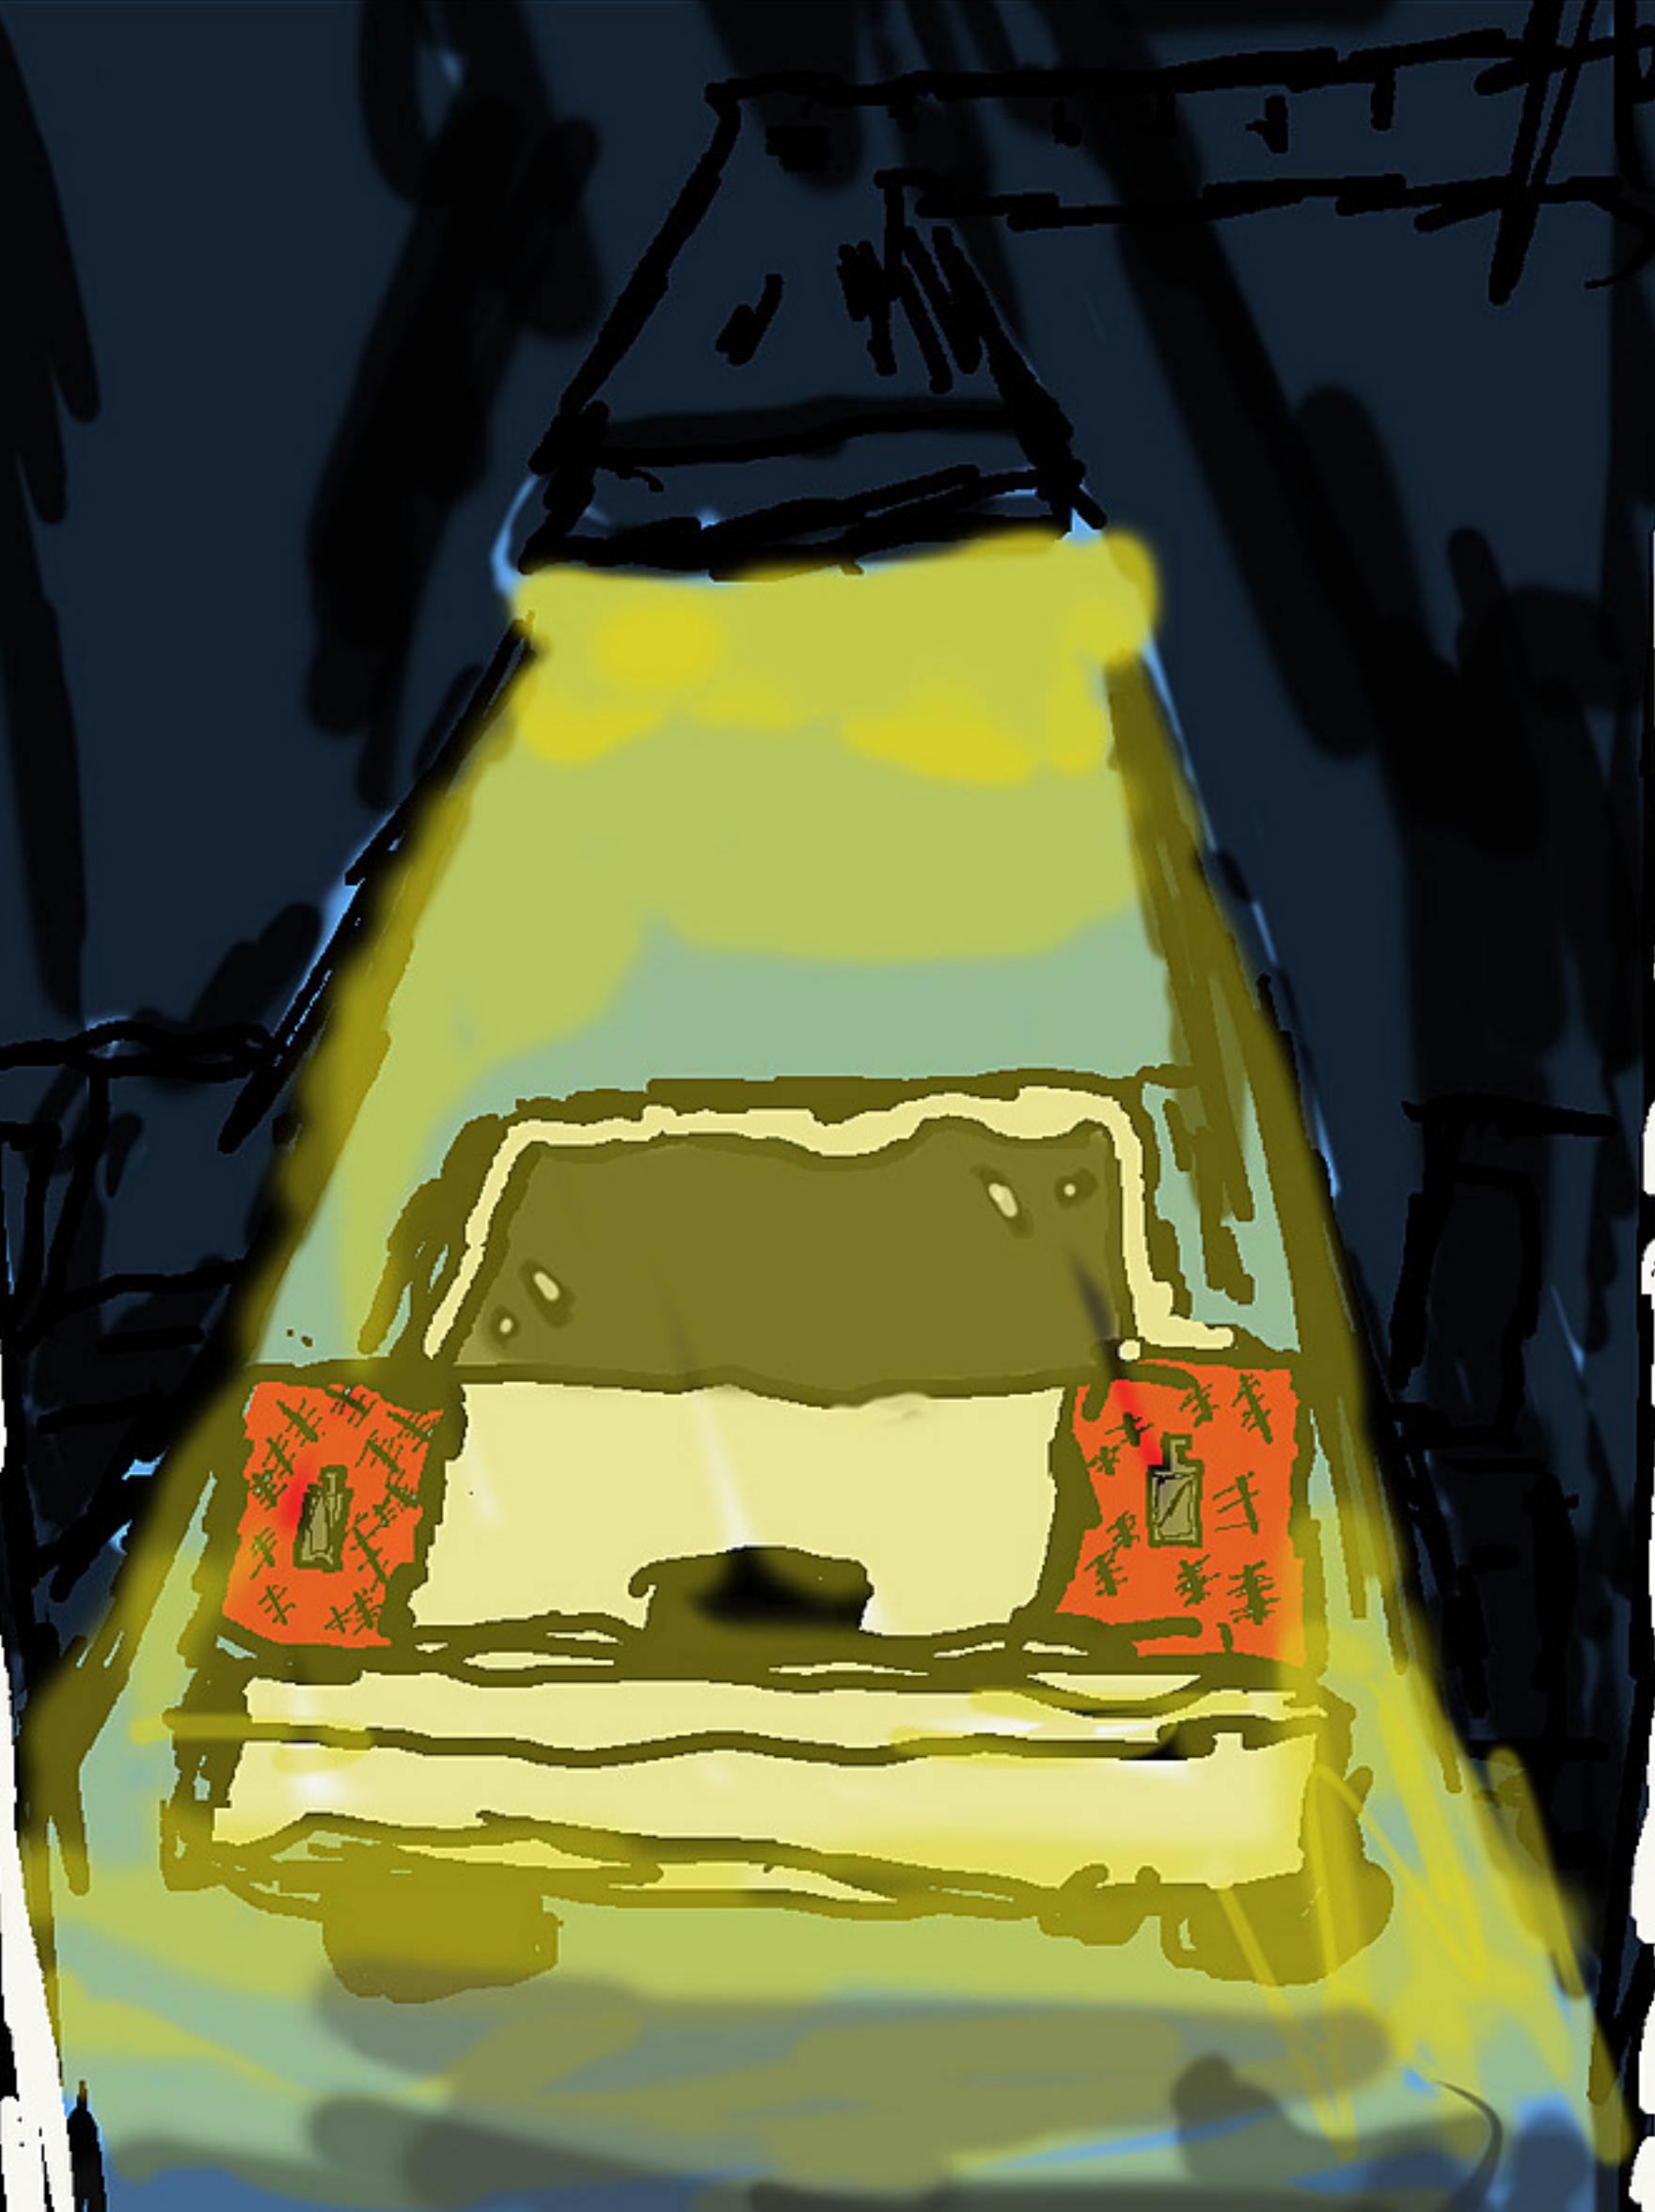

Sometimes, when you follow the rabbit hole. You end up lost in the maze of tunnels below the surface.

My car is just outside

Falling down the rabbit hole is always easy.
It's finding your way back,
which is the hard part

NOT ALL RABBITS
